SPAIN.

Popular revolutions among the Celtic-Latin races of mankind have not been such in times past as to inspire very sanguine expectations in view of the present uprising in Spain against the existing government of ISABELLA. A viler personage than that woman has not ruled over any people in modern times; and the fact that the Spaniards have suffered her and her adherents to oppress and disgrace them as long as she has is evidence in itself of profound national degradation.

That General PRIM is making some headway in the work of revolution, and that he and his party aim at nothing short of a total overthrow of the existing government, is generally conceded by all save the venal organs of the imperiled government; and it is more than probable that Spain will not cease to be agitated until this last remaining scion of the old Bourbon stock is swept from the throne. It may take some time to do it; but the signs are that one of those revolutions which are said never to go back has begun in that almost defunct nationality.

This will be the pulling down, the demolition. The next will be a more difficult task to build up. Are the Spaniards ready for a free government? Could they sustain one if they had it? are the next questions. Their kindred of Mexico have been trying it for forty years, but without success; but have only sunk from bad to worse. Other offshoots from the same old stock in this hemisphere have succeeded but little better than the Mexicans. We confess, therefore, that we look at the pending struggle with less hope than if it were put forth by some other people. Constitutions are not the work of a day, but the growth of generations. Still it is necessary that the old dead forms should be swept out of the way before a free Constitution can even begin to grow. For that reason we are glad to see this movement. It is evidence that there is some life left; and let us hope that, under the influences now operating so powerfully throughout the world, even Spain may be raised up to life and liberty. But the schoolmaster has more to do in Spain than the soldier, or even the statesman; and the Bible must become well established before written Constitutions can do the people much good. They need a moral revolution even more than a political one.

PENNSYLVANIA NOMINATIONS.

The Democrats of Mercer county have nominated for Assembly, James Pierce, of Hickory; Treasurer, Wm. Buck, of Greenville, who defeated a soldier competitor, W. S. Maguire, almost three to one; Commissioner, Aaron Carmichael, of Worth; Auditor, George R. Graham, of Mercer; Poor Director, James McCormack, of New Vernon; Jury Commissioner, Wm. L. Brackenbridge, of Findley.

The Republicans of Clarion county have nominated for Sheriff, W. P. Finlay; Treasurer, B. M. Means; County Commissioner, David McClay; Auditor, three years, Edward F. Lerch; Auditor, 1 year, J. T. Coax; Jury Commissioner T. S. Burns.

The Republicans of Carbon county, have nominated David S. Lorett for Assembly.

The Republicans of Schuylkill county have nominated Capt. James R. Cleaver for State Senate; Conrad F. Shindle, of Tamaqua, Griffith T. Jones, of St. Clair, and William J. Lewis, of Tremont, for Assembly.

The Democrats of Crawford county have nominated T. J. Lowry, for State Senate; Dr. A. Logan and B. S. McAllister, Esq., for Assembly. This Mr. Lowry is brother to Mr. Morrow B. Lowry. The latter carried Crawford county, some weeks ago, after a severe contest, and consequently has the Conferees therefrom in the District Convention. The primary elections in Erie county were held on Saturday last, with what result has not yet been announced. The Dispatch and the Gazette of Erie both opposed him with great bitterness, while the Observer advocated his re-nomination.

The Republicans of the Twenty-first District have nominated for Senators Col. John H. Robinson of Juniata, and Mr. Samuel M'Vittey, of Huntingdon. These are in place of Mr. Hall and Mr. Haines, whose terms are expiring.

IN ANOTHER COLUMN will be found the President's general amnesty proclamation. The number of persons excluded is very small, embraced in three classes, as follows: 1. The chief civil officers of the late Confederate States, including Governors, heads of departments and foreign agents; the military officers of rank above Brigadier General, and naval officers above Captain. 2. Those who treated prisoners of war as they should not have been treated. 3. The conspirators against the life of Lincoln and persons who are in civil, military or naval confinement, or on bail, serving out sentence, or awaiting trial. The reader will observe that free pardon is extended to the rebel masses, who, in the opinion of the President, are "now well and loyally disposed."

THE Post would be glad to conceal a difference, which it cannot. We quote its judgment of Mr. WILLIAMS to corroborate our own; to show that in estimating him we are not biassed by party predilections; but judge soberly and righteously. The Post quotes an old woman's opinion to the confounding of its own; to the demonstration that it is incapable of a judgment it can stand by, or which its party ought to accept. In this way it shows that an old woman, and that one a Republican, is a safer leader of the Democracy than it is. In this conclusion we shall have no quarrel with our neighbor.

PROF. WATSON, of the Michigan University, is a close observer of the starry firmament. But recently he brought a hitherto unknown planet into the notice of the astronomical world, and had it named in his honor. He has just found another hidden planet in close neighborhood to old Neptune, and we suggest that it be named the "Michigan," in honor of the institution which boasts of so learned and watchful and an astronomer as the discover.

THE Irish police have been decorated with medals in acknowledgment of their praiseworthy efforts in suppressing the recent spasmodic Fenian outbreak. The poor fellows who have to wear the insignia of honor will subject themselves to much danger from headbreaking Hibernians, and what was intended as a reward will become a direct punishment.

GEN. GRIFFIN has assumed command of the Fifth Military District. In watching over and guarding the lives and property of loyal citizens, the gallant Sheridan proved a too zealous griffin for the President, and was supplanted.

Havana Cigar Makers' Strike.

GOVERNMENT INTERFERENCE IN BEHALF OF THE EMPLOYERS.

THE NEGRO UPRISINGS.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

HAVANA, September 5.—The cigar makers of this city are making earnest endeavors to induce all among their fellow workmen to act unanimously and declare themselves on a strike for the pay they were receiving in the early part of the year, before the new tax law went into force. The city authorities take sides with the employers in keeping the wages down to starvation rates, and the Government has issued an order enjoining upon the former not to take any operatives, unless provided with a certificate from the police ward, admonishing them that they will be held responsible for failing to report every person demanding higher wages, to be dealt with as a disturber of the public peace.

The estimates of the sugar crop are about the same as last year's. There appears to be a large increase of exports. Sugar is quiet and firm, at 8¾ reals for No. 12.

The money market is stringent.

The object of the negro rising in Santiago De Cuba was to attack the Spaniards and proclaim their freedom. Two more negroes were arrested on a coffee estate near Cabri, on confessions of those previously arrested; also a son of Senor Borses, one of the principal offenders.

It is reported from St. Thomas that there had been an uprising of about three hundred negroes, who caused considerable disorder in the streets. They attacked the fort, but were quickly repulsed, with five killed and several wounded. About fifty of them have been imprisoned. The uprising is said to have been caused by some sanitary measures decreed by the Governor and Board of Health.

The Recent Election—Cartier Elected to Both Houses—McGee's Majority 277—Mechanics Hall Attacked by a Mob—The Rioters Routed by the Guard.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

TORONTO, September 6.—A dispatch from Montreal last evening to the Globe says; Cartier is elected for both Houses by a majority of three hundred and fifty. The majority for McGee at the close of the polls was two hundred and fifty seven.

After the announcement, a mob of about two hundred of the Develin party arrived opposite Mechanics' Hall, and tore down the statement of the poll. A riot then commenced, a shower of stones being directed at the hall, and the windows in the front were broken. There was a free fight in the street. The mob was kept out of the hall where McGee was by revolver shots from the inside at the entrance. The guards charged on the rioters and put them to rout.

OTTOWA, Sept. 7.—At the election for the county of Russell, to-day, a severe fight took place in Clarence, between the French and Irish. One had a leg broken and a good many others had broken heads.

A Montreal dispatch gives the particulars of the riot yesterday. About a dozen rioters were captured by the soldiers and police, and were only with difficulty saved from the vengeance of the enraged citizens, who threatened to lynch them. One policeman killed, about thirty serious casualties, and half a dozen gun shot wounds, are reported as the sum of the injuries sustained by citizens. About a dozen are reported severely injured.

The California Election—Instance the General Apathy—Preparations to Celebrate the Anniversary of the Admission of California—Flight of a Defaulting Cashier—Mining Share Market Continues Dull.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

SAN FRANCISCO, September 7.—No data is received for a resume of election results further than already noted, only that the majorities telegraphed from the interior increase Haight's majority. San Francisco now stands over 4000. This might have been overcome, if a full vote had not been prevented by apathy. The same apathy prevailed in the interior. Nevada county, one of the strongest Republican counties, polled only 3,500 out of 5,700 registered, giving Haight seventy-five majority. This is a representative instance. Several small counties to-day are represented for Gorham by majorities averaging less than one hundred, but they do not change the result announced. Higby, Union, for Congress, is 700 ahead.

Arrangements are making for a public celebration of the seventeenth anniversary of the admission of California, on the 9th instant.

The mining share market continues to droop: Alpha, 450; Crown Point, 945; Gould & Curry, 307; Hall & Norcross, 2,000, a fall of 1,000 in one week; Yellow Jacket, 560. Chollar Potosi, 422. Legal Tenders unchanged.

Formation of Juarez's New Cabinet—Almost a Rupture Between Juarez and Diaz—Ninety Liberals Shot by Miramon.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

NEW YORK, September 7.—The Herald's City of Mexico letter, dated July 29th, says: Juarez has completed the formation of his new Cabinet. The whole country has been laid off into military districts, to which Reguiles, Escobedo, Corona, Diaz and Alvarez have been assigned to command.

On the 15th of July the President was accorded an informal reception, which was rather an indifferent affair, the people being conspicuously wanting in the usual Mexican enthusiasm. A youth, named Maximilian, read a poem dedicated to Juarez, and a little girl, named Carlotta, presented him with a golden crown.

Diaz had almost a rupture with Juarez on the subject of the expected execution of fourteen more prisoners of war, and it was through his efforts that they were respited. He is reported to have threatened Juarez with the forcible intervention of the army which he commands, unless the sentences were suspended.

Carlos Miramon has 2,600 men in the mountains, and recently shot ninety Liberals in revenge for his brother's death.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

ST. LOUIS, September 7.—General Sheridan arrived at Cairo at noon and left for St. Louis immediately. A salute was fired, but there was no time for a demonstration, the General being obliged to hasten from the boat to the cars, which had already waited half an hour for him. He arrived at Odin on time, and left there for St. Louis at 9:50, where he will arrive at 12:50 and be met by a delegation of the Reception Committee, and escorted to the Southern Hotel. The public demonstration will not take place till Monday evening.

THE PARDON PROCLAMATION.

Excluded Classes of Rebels Reduced to Three.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8, 1867.

THE PARDON PROCLAMATION.

By the President of the United States of America:

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, In the month of July, Anno Domini 1861, the two Houses of Congress, with extraordinary unanimity, solemnly declared that the war then existing was not waged on the part of the Government in any spirit of oppression, nor for any purpose of conquest or subjugation, nor for the purpose of overthrowing or interfering with the rights or established institutions of the States, but to defend and maintain the supremacy of the Constitution and to preserve the Union, with all the dignity, equality and rights of the several States unimpaired, and that as soon as these objects should be accomplished, the war ought to cease;

And Whereas, The President of the United States, on the 8th day of December, A. D. 1863, and on the 26th day of March, 1864, did, with the object of suppressing the then existing rebellion, of inducing all persons to return to their loyalty, and of restoring the authority of the United States, issue proclamations offering amnesty and pardon to all persons who had directly or indirectly participated in the then existing rebellion, except as in those proclamations were specified and reserved:

And Whereas, The President of the United States did, on the 29th day of May, A. D. 1865, issue a further proclamation, with the same objects before mentioned, and to the end that the authority of the government of the United States might be restored, and that peace, order and freedom might be established, and the President did, by the said last mentioned proclamation, proclaim and decree that he thereby granted to all persons who had directly or indirectly participated in the then existing rebellion, except as therein excepted, amnesty and pardon, with restoration of all rights of property, except as to slaves, and except in certain cases where legal proceedings had been instituted; but upon condition that such persons should take and subscribe to an oath therein prescribed, which oath should be registered for permanent preservation.

And Whereas, In and by said last mentioned proclamation, of the 29th day of May, A. D. 1865, fourteen extensive classes of persons therein specially described were altogether excepted and excluded from the benefits thereof;

And Whereas, The President of the United States did, on the 2d day of April, A. D. 1866, issue a proclamation, declaring that the insurrection was at an end, and was thenceforth to be so regarded;

And Whereas, There now exists no organized armed resistance of misguided citizens, or others, to the authority of the United States, in the States of Georgia, South Carolina, Virginia, North Carolina, Tennessee, Alabama, Louisiana, Arkansas, Mississippi, Florida and Texas, and the laws can be sustained and enforced therein by the proper civil authority, State or Federal, and the people of said States are well and loyally disposed, and have conformed, and, if permitted to do so, will conform in their legislation to the condition of affairs growing out of the amendment to the Constitution of the United States, prohibiting slavery within the limits and jurisdiction of the United States;

And Whereas, There no longer exists any reasonable ground to apprehend within the States which were involved in the late rebellion a renewal thereof, or any unlawful resistance by the people of said States to the Constitution and laws of the United States;

And Whereas, As large standing armies, military occupation, martial law, military tribunals, and the suspension of the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus, and the right of trial by jury, are in time of peace dangerous to public liberty, incompatible with the individual rights of the citizen, contrary to the genius and spirit of our free institutions, and exhaustive of the national resources, and ought not therefore to be sanctioned or allowed, except in cases of actual necessity for repelling invasion or suppressing insurrection or rebellion;

And Whereas, A retaliatory or vindicative policy, attended by unnecessary disqualifications, pains, penalties, confiscations and disfranchisement, now as always could, only tend to hinder reconciliation among the people and national restoration, while it must seriously embarrass, obstruct and repress the popular energies and national industry and enterprise;

And Whereas, For these reasons, it is now deemed essential to the public welfare, and to the more perfect restoration of constitutional law and order, that the said last mentioned proclamation, so as aforesaid issued, on the 29th day of May, A. D. 1865, should be modified, and that the full and beneficient pardon conceded thereby should be opened and further extended to a large number of persons, who, by its aforesaid exceptions, have been hitherto excluded from Executive clemency;

Now, therefore, be it known, that I, Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, do hereby proclaim and declare that the full pardon described in the said proclamation of the 29th day of May, A. D. 1865, shall hereafter be opened and extended to all persons who, directly or indirectly, participated in the late rebellion, with the restoration of all privileges, immunities and rights of property, except as to property with regard to slaves, and except in cases of legal proceedings under the laws of the United States; but upon this condition, nevertheless, that every such person who shall seek to avail himself of this proclamation shall take and subscribe the following oath, and shall cause the same to be registered for permanent preservation, in the same manner and with the same effect, with the oath prescribed in the said proclamation of the 29th day of May, 1865, namely:

"I do solemnly swear, or affirm, in presence of Almighty God, that I will henceforth faithfully support, protect and defend the Constitution of the United States, and the union of the States thereunder, and that I will in like manner abide by and faithfully support all the laws and proclamations which have been made during the late rebellion, with reference to the emancipation of slaves. So help me God."

The following persons, and no others, are excluded from the benefits of this proclamation, and of the said proclamation of the 29th day of May, A. D. 1865, namely:

First,—The chief or pretended chief executive officers, including the President, Vice President, and heads of departments of the pretended Confederate or rebel government, and all who were agents thereof in foreign States and countries, and all who held or pretended to hold, in the service of the said pretended Confederate Government, a military rank or title above the grade of Brigadier General, and naval rank or title above that of Captain, and all who were or pretended to be Governors of States, while maintaining, abetting or submitting to and acquiescing in rebellion.

Second—All persons who in any way treated, otherwise than as lawful prisoners of war, persons who in any capacity were employed or engaged in the military or naval service of the United States.

Third—All persons who, at the time they may seek to obtain the benefits of this proclamation, are actually in civil, military or naval confinement or custody, or legally held to bail, either before or after conviction, and all persons who were engaged, directly or indirectly, in the assassination of the late President of the United States, or in any plot or conspiracy in any manner therewith connected.

In testimony whereof, I have signed these presents with my hand, and have caused the seal of the United States to be thereunto affixed.

Done at the city of Washington, the seventh day of September, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

ANDREW JOHNSON,

By the President.

WILLIAM H. SEWARD,
Secretary of State.

LEGAL EFFECT OF THE AMNESTY PROCLAMATION.

The Intelligencer says: During the deliberations of the Cabinet, yesterday, it is understood it became evident that in the opinion of every member present the legal effect of the contemplated amnesty proclamation would be to relieve all persons, included within its terms, from all disqualification, as well as all penalties incurred by complicity in the late rebellion, and of course, so far as the action of the General Government is concerned, from all disabilities as to the right of suffrage.

The Board of Managers of the Asylum for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers met in this city yesterday. There were in attendance President Johnson, General Grant, General Butler, ex-Governor Smyth, General Martindale, General Cavendar, Mr. Gunnekel, and Dr. Woolevet. Reports from asylums show there are now in the three asylums located at Augusta, Maine, Columbus, Ohio, and Milwaukee, Wisconsin, six hundred disabled soldiers, and that five hundred more, with their families, are aided by out-door relief at their own houses. General Martindale, from the Committee on Location of a Central Asylum, reported the purchase of five hundred acres of land near Dayton, Ohio, which was confirmed, and an appropriation made for the immediate erection of buildings at that place. These, with the new buildings in course of erection at Augusta and Milwaukee, will accommodate six hundred more, which, from applications received for admission, the Board think will be required during the coming winter.

FOREIGN NEWS BY STEAMER.

The Speeches of Napoleon at Arras and Lille—Significant Speech by the Danish Minister of War—Spanish Insurrection—The Expedition to Abyssinia—&c., &c.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

NEW YORK, September 8, 1867.

The steamers City of Baltimore and Allemania, from Europe, have arrived. The latest advices are to the 29th via Queenstown.

Napoleon was present at the celebration of the two hundredth anniversary of the annexation of Lille to France, and both the Emperor and Empress were received with great enthusiasm. The following is the full speech at Arras:

"Monsieur Le Maire: It is with pleasure I find myself among you, after such a long period, and I have seized with avidity the occasion of a national fete to come and learn your desires, and to assure you that my solicitude for all the interests of the country shall never fail you. You are right to feel confidence in the future. It is only feeble governments which seek in foreign complications a diversion from home embarrassments; but when force is derived from the mass of the nation, we have only to do our duty to satisfy the permanent interests of the country, and while holding aloft the national banner, to guard ourselves from being led away by ill-timed impulses, however patriotic they may be. I thank you for the sentiment you have expressed towards the Empress and my son. Rest assured that they share my devotion for France, and that their greatest happiness would be to put an end to all misery and to alleviate all suffering."

In his speech at Lille, Napoleon said: "When years ago I came for the first time to visit the Department of the Nord, everything smiled upon my wishes. I had just espoused the Empress, and I may say I had also just wedded France, before eight millions of witnesses. Order was restored, political passions were lulled to rest, and I foresaw for the country a new era of greatness and prosperity; and at home the union existing among all good citizens presaged the peaceful dawn of liberty abroad. I saw our glorious flag protecting every cause of civilizing justice. During the last fourteen years many of my hopes have been realized, and great progress has been accomplished. Dark spots, however, have darkened our horizon; but even as good fortune has not dazzled me, so transient reverses will not discourage me. How should I be discouraged, when I see from one end of France to the other the people greeting the Empress and myself with acclamations in which are unceasingly associated the name of our son. To-day I do not come here only to celebrate a glorious anniversary in the capital of ancient Flanders. I also come to learn your wants, to heighten the courage of some, to confirm the confidence of all, and to endeavor to increase the prosperity of this great department by still further developing its agriculture, manufactures and commerce. You will aid me, gentlemen, in this noble task; but you will not forget that the first condition of the prosperity of a nation, like ours, is to possess the consciousness of its own strength, and not to allow itself to be depressed by imaginary fears; but to rely upon the wisdom and patriotism of the government. The Empress, touched by the sentiments which you express, unites with me in thanking you for your warm and sympathetic welcome."

These speeches had a tranquilizing effect in London, but were not equally appreciated in Paris.

The Danish Minister of War made a speech at a banquet given by the Danish Military Club, at which the King, Crown Prince and Czarwitch were present, in which he declared that all his efforts had been directed toward the formation of an organization, well equipped, to be in readiness when the moment should arrive for reconquering the territory which Denmark had lost. The King looked very serious during the delivery of this speech, and later in the evening had a half hour's conversation with the Minister of War.

The new Prussian Gazette says: Prussia has expressed to Denmark her readiness to open negotiations respecting the guaranties to be given by the latter for the treatment of Germans in North Schleswig. The discussion of the question will probably take place at Berlin.

Prussian gunboats had disembarked Cretan emigrants at Athens.

It is reported that a marriage had been arranged between the Crown Prince of Denmark and the Princess Royal of Sweden.

Spanish official dispatches of the 27th state that one thousand insurgents in Catalonia had taken advantage of the amnesty and surrendered. The bands in Aragon had been reduced to four hundred men who were moving toward the frontier, pursued by the Royal troops. The rest of Spain was quiet. A dispatch of the 28th states that the Aragon insurgents passed the frontier and disarmed.

Subscriptions to the new Greek loan had reached ten million drachms. The greater portion has already been spent in the purchase of vessels and war munitions. Three steamers were bought in England and two other iron clads were ordered.

The expedition to Abyssinia is to consist of two regiments of the line, and eight regiments of native Punjaub infantry, six regiments of Indian cavalry, mountain guns, and two batteries of royal artillery. The Viceroy of Egypt, has been requested to furnish 3,000 camels for transportation purposes.

It is said an understanding upon the Polish question was come to at Salzburg.

The Fortress of Wurzburg, in Bavaria, was being disarmed.

The great iron works at Blainean, South Wales, has stopped. Nine hundred persons are thrown out of employment.

Highway Robber Arrested.

About twelve o'clock last night Chief of Police Scott, with officers Dressler and Rivers, arrested Michael Maloney, at his house, corner of Webster and Washington streets, on a charge of being concerned in the robbery of James Fleck, railroad baggage master, on Saturday night, elsewhere noticed. Fleck, it seems, recognized Maloney as one of his assailants, and made an information against him. After being taken to the tombs, Maloney divulged the names of his companions, and the police succeeded in arresting them at a house in Basin alley, in the Sixth ward. We did not learn their names.

The Tack-O'Connor Affair.

In Philadelphia, on Saturday, Theodore A. and Agustus H. Tack, charged on the oath of James O'Connor, with conspiracy to defraud him out of a large sum of money, were arraigned before Alderman Beitler for a final hearing. Lewis C. Cassidy, Esq, counsel for the defendants, stated that his clients were anxious that the case might be thoroughly examined into, and for that reason they waived a hearing that it might be returned to court and there disposed of. District Attorney Mann said he had no objections, but he would require the defendants to be held in sufficient amount of bail to warrant their appearance at court. The Alderman fixed the bail at $10,000 each, which was promptly entered.

Prize-Fight Interrupted.

Jimmy Sullivan and Jimmy Haley had some "difference" yesterday, and concluded to settle it between themselves, and for this purpose repaired to Boyd's Hill about four o'clock yesterday evening, followed by quite a number of the "fancy." Seconds were selected, a ring formed, the parties stripped, and the first round fought, when the appearance of officers Wills and Asholman interrupted the affair. In the first round Haley knocked Sullivan down and drew first blood, and before time was called the officers had taken charge of Sullivan, and Haley had important business in another part of the city. Sullivan was taken to the lock-up, and Haley was being looked after.

Abandonment.—Hester Brown made information before Alderman Donaldson, on Saturday, against her husband, Jas. Brown, charging him with deserting and abandoning her. Brown is a barber, has been carrying on business in Allegheny city, and his wife resides in Beaver. He was committed for Court.

Kate Dickson, on the same day, made information before Alderman Taylor, against Samuel Dickson, charging him with the same offense. The parties reside in the Ninth ward. A warrant was issued for Samuel.

Traveling Boot Black.—A "Knight of the Brush," calling himself Charley Marshall, arrived in the city yesterday from Saratoga, en route for Vicksburg, Mississippi, which he says is his home. He left home early last spring, has visited all the principal cities in the east, attended the races at Saratoga, and is now on his way home to spend the winter. He is about fourteen years of age, and is an unusually bright and intelligent boy. He proposes to remain in the city until he can make money enough to carry him to Cincinnati.

Body Found.—The body of an infant was found yesterday morning in the yard attached to a house occupied by John Hendler, on Fountain street, Allegheny city. The body was in such a state of decomposition as to render it impossible to come to any conclusion as to how, when, or in what manner it came to its death. Coroner Clawson was notified and held an inquest on the body, when a verdict was found that it came to its death at a time and place and from causes unknown to the jury.

Larceny.—Michael Duffey was at a saloon at the corner of Grant and Water street, Saturday, and feeling fatigued laid himself down upon a bench to "enjoy tired nature's sweet restorer, balmy sleep," and upon awaking he discovered that some one had abstracted forty dollars from his pocket. He appeared before the Mayor and made an information against Henry Crew, who was arrested and held for a hearing.

Primary Meetings.—The projectors of the Labor Reform Party held primary meetings in the different election districts on Saturday, for the election of delegates to the County Convention which will assemble on Wednesday next at the Court House. But little enthusiasm or excitement was developed, the elections proceeding quietly, we have not been favored with any returns.

Coming.—Mr. Scott, Chief of Police, has been credibly informed that thieves from both the Eastern and Western cities are making their arrangements to visit this city during the State Fair. We think they had better stay away, as we have more of that class of individuals here now than can be attended to properly.

Struck by Lightning.—During the storm on Friday evening last, the barn of Mr. Thomas Kiddoo, situated in Snowden township, was struck by lightning, and took fire. The building, together with upwards of forty tons of hay and a large quantity of oats, was consumed.

Chapter of Robberies.

It appears from the number of robberies committed Saturday night and Sunday morning that those who make their living by knocking people down and "going through" their pockets were out in force. We have heard of no less than three successful robberies and one attempt, which were committed between the hours of eleven o'clock Saturday night and daylight Sunday morning. The first is that of James Fleck, baggage master on the Wall's Accomodation, Pennsylvania railroad, which occurred about eleven o'clock Saturday night. Mr. Fleck was coming down Washington street, and when near Webster, he was accosted by three men, one of whom knocked him down and the other kicked him several times about the head and face, cutting and bruising him in a shocking manner, and rendering him insensible for a short time. On returning to consciousness he discovered that his pocket book, containing between seventy and eighty dollars, had been taken.

Shortly after eleven o'clock a man, whose name were unable to learn, was attacked by two men near the Elevator, and knocked down by one of them, while the other took his pocket book, containing forty-five dollars, and a valuable gold watch, from his pockets.

About one o'clock Sunday morning a stranger, in passing along High street, was met by four men, knocked down and his pocket book, containing forty dollars, abstracted from his pocket.

Between one and two o'clock on Sunday morning an attempt was made by three ruffians to rob a man who was passing down Wylie street. They caught him at an alley between High and Tunnel streets, into which they dragged him, choking him to prevent him from making a noise. The approach of the policeman alarmed them, when they left their victim and made good their escape before having accomplished their purpose.

We have heretofore alluded to the necessity of an increase in the police force, and think from recent occurrences that not only the welfare of the city but the safety of the citizens requires it. The men composing the present force are reliable, so far as we can learn, but the number is insufficient. It would require fully double the present number to make anything like an efficient force, and if citizens are in favor of it, and are willing to pay the expense, we cannot see the propriety of Councils refusing it.

Down on the District Attorney.

The Dispatch is out of humor with Col. Duff, the District Attorney. It says "for some time past complaints have been numerous of the manner in which business is delayed in the Quarter Sessions," and with this preface proceeds to rap the District Attorney over the knuckles for disregarding the arrangement, which prevailed in former years, "to hear the surety of the peace cases at the beginning of the term." The Dispatch calls to its aid, in making up its complaint, members of the bar, and says they all "condemn the practice in unmeasured terms." Judge Stowe is even made to say "that he would not sit there (on the bench) and see the public interests suffer or the county put to unnecessary expense without doing all in his power to prevent it." Our uneasy neighbor would have the Court, and members of the bar, complaining of "the practice of bringing up surety of the peace cases, and keeping jurors, witnesses, &c., waiting in the meantime," and specially refers to the "fact that a jury had been kept waiting for business several hours in the box on Thursday." Having made some remarks for His Honor, the Dispatch says they had "the desired effect." "The surety of the peace business was dropped, and the jury, which had been sitting idly in the box for an hour or better, soon found something to do." Jurors are paid from the commencement of the term, and while their presence during last week might have been dispensed with, in view of the increased number of surety cases, this was a matter with which the District Attorney had nothing specially to do. This officer did exactly what the Dispatch charges him with not doing, viz: followed the custom pursued in the Quarter Sessions for at least ten years past, by devoting the first week of the term mainly to the disposal of surety of the peace cases. The Dispatch must try again, "the first lesson" will not bear scrutiny.

Burglars Arrested.

Officers Giane, Wilson, Searight, Mulberron and Grogan made a lucky hit yesterday morning, and captured John Murphy, Fred. Faulkner, William Paine and John Harris, four professionals, who have for a long time been doing a thriving business in various parts of the city, but in such a manner as to avoid detection. About three o'clock Sunday morning Patsey Bennet, proprietor of a grocery store at No. 14 High street, informed officer Giane that the four worthies above named were in his his store, whereupon he, accompanied by the other officers mentioned, repaired to the place, and found his statement to be correct. Officers Giane and Grogan went to the back door of the house while the others watched the front to prevent an escape from that direction. When Giane opened the back door the thieves turned off the gas and made a rush for the front door, but finding it guarded, fastened it again and retired behind the counter to await further developments. A light was procured and the front door forced open, when the thieves were discovered lying behind the counter. The officers took them in charge and conducted them to the lock-up, where they remained until nine o'clock, when they had a hearing, and were committed for Court. It is not known how they effected an entrance to the house, as Patsey was too much confused to tell, but it is the opinion of the officers that they frightened Patsey, who sleeps in the store, into admitting them.

Methodist Annual Conference.

UNIONTOWN, PA., Sep. 6th, 1867.

THIRD DAY'S SESSION.

Session opened with religious services as usual. Roll called, minutes read and approved.

Several persons were introduced and invited to honorary seats.

Several Committees reported generally unfinished reports.

The hour of the day having arrived, Rev. R. Rose, Corresponding Secretary Missionary Society, addressed the Conference in an able manner, asking, if possible, more aid in carrying on that department of the work.

On motion, a Committee was appointed to consider the subject and report to Conference.

Committee: W. Collier, V. Lucas, D. Jones, J. Redman and V. S. Elliott, who subsequently reported that one half of the collection next Sabbath be given to the Board, and that each Pastor make an effort at each of his appointments or churches, in December, to raise money for that purpose.

Committee on examination of young men for aid in preparing for the Ministry, reported the name of P. T. Conoway as worthy of assistance. He being present, started immediately for Adrian College.

Drowning Accident.

We heard the following particulars in regard to an accident which is said to have occurred yesterday forenoon about eleven o'clock. A boy, whose name we were unable to learn, while rowing a skiff in the Monongahela river, about the time mentioned, noticed a boy on the high pier of the Monongahela Bridge, who, in attempting to regain his hat, which had blown off, lost his balance, and was precipitated into the river, a distance of sixty feet, striking against the pier as he fell. He informed a number of persons of the fact, and, on repairing to the place, they found a little dog there, which, it is supposed, had accompanied the boy. They wrote down the facts as given by the boy who had seen the fall, and fastened it to the dog's neck, expecting him to carry it home, and in that manner inform the parents of the unfortunate boy of what had occurred. Search was made for the body, but without success.

Serious Accident.

George A. Megrew, of Allegheny City, President of the Allegheny Grocery and Provision Company, met with a serious accident yesterday, which will, for a time at least, prevent him from attending to his business. Mr. M. was riding horseback, and when near the Penitentiary, on Ohio street, the horse became frightened at a car, and refused to pass it. Mr. Megrew attempted to force him past, when he reared and fell backward on his side, bruising him considerably about the head and face, and it is feared inflicting severe internal injuries. Mr. M. was taken to his home and Dr. Kirk being summoned, attended to his injuries.

Painful Accident.

Frank Lofink, a resident of Troy Hill, employed at Miller's grocery store, on Liberty street, met with a serious accident on Saturday afternoon. He was engaged in cutting sugar out of a barrel with a cooper's adz, with which he struck himself on the left wrist, severing the radial artery, and cutting half way through the bone. He was taken to Dr. Childs' office, on Penn street, where his injuries were attended to. He lost over a pint and a half of blood before the hemorrhage could be checked. The Doctor tied the artery and yesterday the injured man was in a fair way to recover.

Larceny Cases.

A man giving his name as William Moore, was committed for trial on Saturday, by Mayor McCarthy, on a charge of stealing articles of clothing from D. L. Kerr, mate of the steamboat J. D. Neele.

Michael Smith, of Blair county, appeared before Mayor McCarthy, on Saturday, and accused David Rodgers of stealing from him fifteen dollars, whilst in a drinking saloon in the Diamond on Friday evening. The accused was locked up for a hearing, but the prosecutor failing to appear at the specified time, he was released.

Coroner's Inquest.—Coroner Clawson held an inquest yesterday on the body of Louis Hetzel, who died yesterday morning, from the effects of a wound inflicted with a pair of scissors, in the hands of Blasius Kendler, on the twenty-eighth ult., an account of which was published in the GAZETTE of the following day. The jury rendered a verdict in accordance with the facts. Kendler is in jail, having been committed by Mayor Morrison, on a charge of felonious assault and battery. He will now have to answer a more serious charge.

Meeting of Councils.—A special meeting of the Select branch of the City Councils will be held this evening at 7½ o'clock. A full attendance of the members is desired as business of importance will be brought before them.

The Inquest upon the remains of Hugh Stewart, killed at Graff & Bennett's rolling mill, at Girty's Run, on Friday last, will be concluded at the Allegheny Mayor's office this evening.

A First Class Hotel.

The St. James Hotel, No. 405 and 407 Liberty street, James K. Lanahan, proprietor, ranks among the first hotels in the city. The building is new, having been erected within the last year, and for comfort and convenience is second to none in the city. It is situated on Liberty street, nearly opposite the Union Depot, having a front of forty feet by one hundred feet deep—a brick building four stories high, with an iron front. On the first floor is the dining room, kitchen, bar, baggage rooms and wash rooms. The dining room is a very commodious one, occupying one half of the first floor, being a hundred feet in length by sixteen in width, and is furnished in a manner unsurpassed in the city. The bar is also large and commodious, fitted up regardless of expense, and furnished with the choicest wines and liquors. It is separated from the dining room by a hall eight feet in width, and in the rear of it are respectively the baggage room, wash room, and kitchen, each of which are complete in all their details. The dining room and bar are each entered from the front, as is also the hall separating them, in which is the stairway leading to the second story. At the head of the stairway is the entrance to the parlors, the ladies' on the right and the gentlemen's on the left. The ladies' parlor is furnished superbly, yet everything is so tastefully arranged that there is no appearance of extravagance. The floors are covered with Brussels carpet, while the furniture consists of a fine 8 octave rosewood piano, of Knabe's manufacture, a marble top centre table, two reception or rocking chairs, a tete-a-tete, and a dozen parlor chairs, black walnut, sofa seats. The gentlemen's parlor, on the left, is furnished in similar style, excepting it is minus the piano, and the furniture is oak. Over the hall and below the two parlors is a writing room, fitted up with all the necessary paraphernalia, expressly for the use of guests, which is entered from the gentlemen's parlor. In the rear of each parlor are sleeping rooms, sixteen feet square, the floors of which are covered with Brussels carpet, and the furniture is of solid black walnut, consisting of bedstead, dressing bureau, washstand and chairs. Further along the hall, and in the rear of these, are the bathrooms, which are supplied with both hot and cold water, and arranged for either tub or shower bath. Back of them are eight bedrooms, all of which are furnished in much the same manner as those described, with some slight variations in the style of the furniture, all, however, of the very best quality.

From the main hall on the second floor a stairway leads to the third story. On this floor is a private parlor fronting on Liberty street, and nineteen sleeping apartments. The parlor is furnished in the same style as the ladies' parlor on the floor below, save the piano. The sleeping apartments are carpeted with the best quality of English ingrain carpet, and the furniture is all solid walnut and of modern style, while the beds are each supplied with a husk and hair matress.

The fourth floor is reached by a flight of stairs leading from the main hall on the third floor, and in point of arrangement, furniture, &c., is the exact counterpart of the third floor.

The building is constructed with two courts or ventilators in the center, from which the surrounding rooms are lighted and ventilated by windows opening into them. In this way every room in the building, of which there are seventy-eight, have the advantage of a window. Every room is supplied with gas burners, and seventeen of the sleeping appartments are arranged for fires.

The Hotel is conducted on the European plan, and the restaurant connected with it is open day and night. Mr. Lanahan, the proprietor, personally superintends the business, assisted by John O'Conner. Both these gentlemen are so well known in this city as to need no recommendation at our hands. The clerk's office, situated at the head of the dining room, is occupied by Hugh Kelly and Samuel Christy, who are both gentlemanly and accommodating men, and will be found ever attentive to the comfort of guests. Behind the bar, the smiling countenance of Adam Weigand, and the pleasant "phiz" of Thomas Hogan, are always visible. The employees of the dining room are courteous and attentive to the wants of customers. From the cellar to the attic the house is complete in all its details, and might justly be termed the model hotel of the city.

As an evidence of Mr. Lanahan's ability to "run a hotel," it is only necessary to refer to his success in the business during the past four years, where we find not only prima facie evidence, but proof positive. Mr. L., who is yet a comparatively young man, began life poor, and by his industry and attention to business, has gained a competence of which many more pretentious men would be proud of. The lot on which his new building stands he purchased for $18,000. The building was erected at a cost of $60,000, and the furniture cost $15,000.

To be, or not to be—that's the question.
Whether to suffer with mental anguish,
Feverish lips, cracking pains, dyspeptic agonies.
and nameless bodily suffering;
Or whether, with sudden dash,
Sieze a bottle of PLANTATION BITTERS,
And, as Gunther swears, be myself a man Again.
Gunther said my eyes were sallow,
My visage haggard, my breath tremendous bad—
My disposition troublesome—in fact,
He gently hinted I was fast becoming
Quite a nuisance.

My food has relish, my appetite is keen,
My step elastic, my mind brilliant, and

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 9, 1867.

PROCLAMATION OF AMNESTY.

It is probable the President will to-day issue a Proclamation of Amnesty exempting from pains and penalties nearly all the persons concerned in the rebellion. Four classes, it is said, will be excluded, embracing only a few of the higher military and civil officers of the so-called Confederacy.

All men of sense are agreed that Universal Amnesty ought to be proclaimed sooner or later. The real question is when it can be done most expediently and to best effect. We have steadily discountenanced sweeping and long continued proscriptions, as in violation of the elementary principles of representative government. We would have all persons implicated in the revolt restored to their forfeited immunities as soon as this can be done consistently with the proper reconstruction of the Union and the healthful repose of the people. That time we do not believe to have yet arrived.

There can be no reasonable question but the President hastens his Proclamation of Amnesty as a means of circumventing Congress in the matter of Reconstruction. As the Registers of voters in the seceding States have been made up under the existing laws, it seems most probable that the friends of the Congressional plan would be in the ascendency. The forthcoming Amnesty Proclamation will considerably increase the number of voters, followed by orders to the District Commanders to re-open such of the registries as have been closed, so as to allow the amnestied rebels to qualify as voters.

The President holds that he derives the pardoning power directly from the Constitution, and that he cannot be limited or restrained in the exercise thereof by statutes. Congress has taken a different view, for it has enacted that a Proclamation of Amnesty shall not restore the right of suffrage. There are certainly as able lawyers in Congress as the President or any of his constitutional advisers. Yet we incline to the view that on this point they are wrong and the President is right. The President is not indebted to Congress for the power to remit penalties and forfeitures. He gets it from the Constitution, whence Congress obtains its authority. If we are right in so thinking, we have here another instance of failure on the part of Congress by stretching its powers to hold the President in check, when it should have dealt with him directly by impeachment.

The President has played his game boldly and with adroitness. Congress has played its part with comparative feebleness. So far the substantial advantages are with the President. Months ago we urged Congress to come to a conclusion regarding the impeachment business; by either trying and deposing him if sufficient fault could be found in him to justify such extreme measures, or else by dropping the whole matter. Congress saw what it ought to do, but was totally deficient in the decision and courage required by the occasion. It contrived hedges about the President which are no hedges, and through which he breaks without even a scratch. He easily went through the Office Tenure Bill; accomplished the removal of STANTON, SHERIDAN and SICKLES, and will have little trouble in decapitating as many more officials as shall suit his purposes. He now means to force his way through the statutes restricting his use of the pardoning power, and he will succeed in his effort.

THE DEFEAT IN CALIFORNIA.

Mr. GEORGE C. GORHAM was the Republican candidate for Governor at the election held on Wednesday last. He encountered violent opposition in the Republican ranks. It was alleged against him that he was most unworthy of the place; that by his connection with various plundering schemes in legislation he had forfeited the respect and confidence of the people; and that his nomination was obtained by fraud, and so was not binding. The dissatisfaction with him ran so high that Gen. BIDWELL was nominated for Governor by the indignant Republicans. Upon his refusing to occupy that position, Mr. CALEB T. FAY was brought out. He is a Radical, upright and industrious legislator, and a correct business man.

Mr. H. H. HAIGHT was the democratic nominee. He is a young lawyer of much popularity, and has a good war record. The split among the Republicans, aided by his personal merit, enabled him to run in.

The Republicans were also divided on Secretary of State, Comptroller and State Printer, but united on Congressmen, Lieutenant Governor and the State officers.

Doubtless Governor LOWE will at once call the Legislature together for the ratification of the Constitutional Amendment.

The California Republicans will be wiser for the defeat that has befallen them.

HENRY H. HAIGHT, said to be elected Governor of California, is a native of Rochester, New York, and is on the sunny side of forty-five years. He is a son of Fletcher M. Haight, formerly a distinguished lawyer in Rochester and in St. Louis, and subsequently eminent at the bar of San Francisco. He was, during the last years of his life, District Judge of California, appointed by Mr. Lincoln. The younger Mr. Haight graduated at Yale College in 1844 or '45; studied law in Rochester, and has practiced most successfully at the bar both in St. Louis and San Francisco. He is a man of very decided talents, most pleasing address, and irreproachable character.

IN VIRGINIA the whites have a majority of the registered voters. The discovery of this fact has led to efforts to so combine the whites as practically to exclude the blacks from power. That any class of citizens have a right to unite with a view to gaining political control, will not be questioned. Whites do that among themselves, even where blacks are excluded from citizenship. It is fairly supposable that under like circumstances blacks will do the same. But the avowed purpose of this combination among the whites of Virginia does not relate exclusively to a monopoly of political authority. The expectation is expressed and cherished that by means of it Reconstruction may be deferred to such a season, and under such conditions, as to render nugatory the terms now prescribed by Congress. The Clarksville (Va.) Tobacco Plant, however, exposes the folly of relying upon any such hopes or pursuing any such policy. It says:

"Our people are about to commit one of those blunders which Tallyrand describes as worse than a crime. Any attempt to array one class of citizens against the other will be attended with the most deplorable results. Our only hope—our only safety is to be found in pursuing the path which has been blazed by the law-making power, and in having nothing to do with any party. That we will be forced to vote for the Republicans there is no doubt. If there is one fact in this world more palpable than another, it is that we will never regain our position in the Union except under Republican auspices.

"If we determine on a separate organization of the whites against the blacks, we shall stupidly play into the hands of the Radical leaders. That is just what they want. The cry of persecution will quickly be raised, the powerful appliances of that party will be brought to bear in favor of 'the friend and brother,' and the whites will be driven to the wall. Are we in a condition to defy Congress? Has it not been demonstrated over and over again that Congress is supreme? What madness, then, to array ourselves against the Congressional plan of reconstruction?

"We have been told ever since the war ended that a reaction at the North was surely coming. It has not come, and it is far distant. Let us look neither to the right nor the left, but go forward in the discharge of the stern but disagreeable duties of the hour. If peace come, well; if not, our skirts will be clear."

The Southern whites are slow in learning from experience. At the outset of the President's conflict with Congress, they clamorously sided with him, hoping to reap considerable and important advantages. Two results followed. One of these was the speedy imposition of harsher conditions of restoration than were at first offered. The other was the election, under the impulse the contumacy imparted to loyal sentiment of a new Congress altogether more radical than the preceding one, and in which the republicans constitute a still larger numerical proportion of the whole body. No indications exist, unless the recent result in California can be so construed, to warrant the assumption that the republican ascendency in the nation is likely to be broken. The drift of the omens are the other way. If Congress shall fail to expound the indignation of the loyal masses by the impeachment of the President, there is no room for reasonable doubt that the republicans will next year elect an Executive in harmony with their doctrines and sentiments, at the same time keeping good their preponderance in the Legislative bodies. The revolted States have now the best terms that ever will be offered them; and their interests, as likewise the common welfare of the country, urge upon them the duty of ceasing factious opposition, and closing as soon as possible the arrangement held out.

A TRAVELER in New Hampshire reproduces an old bill for raising a meeting house in Monadnock. It was built one hundred and three years ago (1764) and a vote is recorded for the appointment of a committee to provide liquor for the raising, and subsequently one barrel was purchased for the occasion. As illustrative of those "good old times," take the following:

Expense of raising	18	0	0
Food	21	4	0
Liquor, &c.	35	10	9
Lemons and sundry articles	1	5	7¼
	£75	19	7¼

Four shillings and ninepence were afterward deducted for the rum barrel that was sold.

At the same period in most of the New England States, even a pauper was not buried without a considerable outlay for rum. Many parish records state that it took gallons of spirits, furnished at public expense, to decently inter one who had constantly been supported by the poor funds. If New England puritanism had a rough rind, there was much juicy jollity underneath.

THE DEMOCRATS are casting about in Massachusetts for a gubernatorial candidate. They have not any material left in their own ranks out of which to make a popular standard bearer, and are using pecuniary persuasions to induce ex-Governor Andrew to accept from their hands the nomination. It is said that the sum of fifty thousand dollars has been offered him by the Democrats for the privilege of running him for the office. Of course he did not sell himself.

The Struggle for the Removal of Commissioner Rollins—Sharp Letter from Colonel Hillyer to Thurlow Weed.

The struggle for the removal of Commissioner Rollins has become quite warm and exciting. It is said that the President favors the removal, but that McCulloch is opposed to it, and has strongly urged the President not to heed the hue and cry now being made against Mr. Rollins. Thurlow Weed addressed a note bearing on the subject to General Grant, in which he roughly handled Colonel Hillyer, Revenue Agent at New York. This evinced a tart reply from the latter, and in order to furnish the reader with a specimen of sharp writing, we republish the correspondence as follows:

THURLOW WEED TO GENERAL GRANT.

NEW YORK, Sept. 1, 1867.—Dear General—Public men are responsible for their friends. There is widespread demoralization among the internal revenue officers. The combination here is formidable. Among others Colonel Hillyer is alleged to be implicated. If as is represented he is aiding the effort to remove Mr. Rollins, that fact will confirm suspicions. It is also alleged that Colonel Hillyer has paid little to the government, while his predecessor saved large amounts. There will be Congressional investigations into these revenue frauds, and I am unwilling to see damaging exposures in the case of any officers for whose integrity General Grant is responsible. I have no objection that Colonel Hillyer should see this letter. Truly yours,

THURLOW WEED.

Hon. U. S. Grant.

COLONEL HILLYER TO THURLOW WEED.

NEW YORK, Sept. 4, 1867.—Thurlow Weed, Esq.—SIR—General Grant has forwarded to me, without comment, your letter of the 1st instant, addressed to him. The impertinence of the letter would be incomprehensible did it emanate from any other man than yourself. The impertinence of you addressing Gen. Grant on any subject—the impertinence of you addressing Gen. Grant about me—the impertinence of you accusing anybody of implication in fraud, is impertinence without a parallel. You certainly have lost your reputed shrewdness, or have been smitten with unwonted modesty. Don't you suppose that General Grant knows your reputation and my character? I had supposed that you gloried in your reputation as King of the Lobby and the Prince of Jobbers. Does Satan rebuke sin? Since I have been in office I have had but one official transaction with which you were connected. I have your special letter of commendation to me of a gentleman who called as the attorney of one B. to interpose in behalf of his client. I was satisfied that B. was guilty of intent to defraud the government. However much I might have desired to accommodate you and your friend, I could not conscientiously do otherwise than recommend that he be fined $5,000, conscious of his guilt and the justice of the punishment. He gave me his check for the amount, payable to the collector of the district. I am informed that the amount was afterwards remitted by the Commissioner, by whose influence I do not know. That was the last application ever made to me through you. You found you could not use me, and, with the same chivalry which a man exercises when he attacks another by writing to his wife that her husband is untrue to his vow, you write to the purest of men—and one of my best friends—making insinuations against my integrity. General Grant, as you know, is neither responsible for my appointment nor integrity. I was appointed at the special request of the President. You told me in Washington that you applied for the appointment for your friend Webster, and the President and Secretary told you the place was promised to me, and that as soon as you heard it you said it was a most judicious selection. Your suggestion of the appointment of a Congressional committee is what you know I have announced that I would ask for, and what you least desire. I have repeatedly and publicly stated that such a committee should be appointed to make a thorough investigation into the corruptions and abuses of the revenue system in this city. Such an investigation would doubtless reveal the fact that the morality of the Albany lobby has been transplanted to the city of New York. It is notorious that the corruption of revenue officers in this city is in direct proportion to their intimacy with you. It is doubtless owing to the fact that those who are most under your influence are most shameless in their corruption that the world has dubbed you with the soubriquet of "Fagin." I have never made any attack on the integrity of Mr. Rollins, but I should think better of him if the ring of which you are chief did not rally to his defence the moment he is in danger. No one who knows you will believe that your championship of Mr. Rollins is creditable to him as a man or to his character as an officer. It is not for Mr. Rollins, but for your expected gains, through dishonest means, that you tremble. If access to the Treasury could be obtained more easily through his successor, Rollins's name would soon be added to the list of friends whom you have used, wheedled, cajoled, ruined and abandoned. I have only one word more to say. You state that I am said to be implicated in frauds. Your age alone saves you from my branding you as a liar. After an experience of six months in office, I can proudly say, what I should not have been able to say had I been controlled by you, that my hands are entirely clean. What prouder record can any officer in New York, possessing power and patronage, have than the fact that Thurlow Weed is his enemy?

I am, &c., WM. S. HILLYER.

A Dog's Fidelity.

A gentleman belonging to the staff at the Royal Victoria Hospital, at Netley, took a long walk in the neighborhood of Southampton recently accompanied by his dog, a fine Newfoundlander. In the evening he missed some letters from his coat pocket and his dog. The latter did not surprise him, as the dog often wandered from him in his walks. The next day the gentleman felt annoyed and puzzled at the loss of his letters, and thought it possible he might have drawn them out of his pocket with his handkerchief during his previous day's walk. He resolved, therefore, to repeat the walk, for he might have dropped the letters in an unfrequented path, and they might be there still. About four miles from the hospital he came suddenly upon his dog lying on the ground, with the letters close by. The dog must have lain close by the side of the letters for sixteen hours, including the whole night. The animal has been re-christened "Postmaster General." An artist has sketched the Postmaster General guarding the letters.

MR. WENDELL PHILLIPS turns his vituperation on Gen. Grant after this fashion:

"The General of the United States is to-day a weed caught in the Presidential maelstrom, and, unless some better brains than his own come to the rescue, is sure soon to be swallowed in the vortex. Let no Grant man after this call Johnson a clumsy knave; he has found wit enough to befool the model leader, whose silence passed for the highest wisdom—the puff of whose cigar was statesmanship.

"As matters stand, the only advantage the masses gain from this event is one more hollow idol broken—one more sham exploded. Grant joins McClellan, to stand forever in history among the 'might have been.' We by no means undervalue this gain."

GROWING REPUTATION.

If the entire correspondence from South America, Central America and the West Indies, received by Messrs. Hostetter & Smith during the last twelve months, were published at length, it would probably be considered one of the most extraordinary collections of approbatory testimony on record. The letters, written in every variety of style, and emanating from individuals of almost every class, are, nevertheless, all of the same tenor. Physicians, priests, merchants, planters, military officers, artisans, lawyers, &c., tell one story, admitting, without reserve or qualification, that the tonics heretofore in use in those regions have been generally and justly superseded by

HOSTETTER'S BITTERS.

The confidence manifested by the people of these countries might be fairly called enthusiastic. Yet these are not the only tokens of the growing popularity of

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

The foreign orders for the article from Europe, Australia, New Zealand, China, Japan, East Indies, Cape of Good Hope, Sandwich Islands, &c., have been heavier than at any former period. As an antidote to malaria, a stomachic and general invigorant, they all testify to its remarkable efficacy.

CURE OF FISTULA.

DR. KEYSER: I write to thank you for your kindness and scientific management of my disease, for which I called to consult you some time in January last. You will remember that I had a complication of diseases which finally ended in a terrible fistula, which had been advised to "let alone" on account of a harassing cough, which it was feared might fasten on my lungs. I knew that the popular mode of treating diseases like mine was by a cutting operation, which, if successful at all, would naturally throw the disease upon the lungs or some other vital organ, on account of the suddenness of the cure and the immediate check to a discharge which I was constrained to believe was a sanitary provision of Nature to get rid of some morbid condition in the system. I feel perfectly satisfied that your method of treatment, purifying to the system, and local applications to the fistulous part, must cure, if anything could, without cutting, which I find it has, and I am happy to report myself well in every particular, with sounder and better health than I have had for years. I would also add that the applications you made were almost painless, so that they left me a new man, with all the energies and vigor of restored health.

Yours, gratefully, C——.

Dr. Keyser's consultation rooms are No. 120 Penn street, from 9 A. M. until 4 P. M.

☞HOFF'S MALT EXTRACT BEVERAGE OF HEALTH—Prescribed by Physicians in New York and in the Western States. It is a well known fact that most of American physicians prescribe this healthful beverage as a tonic as well as a pleasant remedy for dyspeptics, debilitated, consumptives, convalescents, invalids, and weak persons, especially in consequence of the recommendation of the New York Academy of Medicine; with the names of the Professors Fordyce Barker, Van Buren, James R. Wood, of New York City; we name also the well-known Dr. T. Comstock, of St. Louis, who recommends it to his patients in his practice. The eminent physicians, Drs. Crane and White, of New York, wrote to Mr. Hoff, 542 Broadway, New York, the following letter: "We have used Hoff's Malt Extract in practice, and the results have been such as to fully justify the claims made for it; we feel certain that it is destined to supply a want long felt."

Dr. Blecken, of Redwing, Min., wrote: "I saw by the papers that the genuine Hoff's Malt Extract has been introduced in America; this is an acquisition of the greatest importance for consumptives. My uncle, M. D. Sandersleben, (Prussian Counsellor of Medicine,) wrote me about its wonderful efficacy: he had prescribed it at St. Paul and obtained the best results; now I wish to try it with one of my medical friends, Dr. Caine, who is suffering from pulmonary consumption, with spasmodic asthma; please, therefore, (follows order). Sold at Druggists and Grocers. Price 60c. per single bottle; or $6 50 per dozen.

THE BANKERS' AND MERCHANTS'
GRAND
Presentation Enterprise.
THE COMMITTEE APPOINTED
WILL POSITIVELY DISTRIBUTE THE PRIZES
AT THE
THIRD GRAND CONCERT
THAT WILL TAKE PLACE AT IRVING HALL, NEW YORK.
Tuesday, Sep. 24, 1867.

BANKERS' AND MERCHANTS' SECOND GRAND CONCERT was given at IRVING HALL, August 24th. It was a grand success. The large hall was filled with the most respectable citizens of New York. The committee that was appointed at the first Concert, announced to the audience that they would distribute the prizes at the next Concert, which will take place at IRVING HALL, on the 24th of September, 1867.

When the Committee made this announcement, the audience gave immense applause. They were pleased to know that the prizes would be distributed at the next Concert on the 24th.

This Grand Distribution of Prizes will be Conducted on the Mutual Benefit Principle.

A PRO RATA DISTRIBUTION OF PROFITS TO TICKET-HOLDERS!

Capital, - - $1,287,148.

TICKETS, ONE DOLLAR EACH,

And limited to One Million Two Hundred and Eighty-seven Thousand One Hundred & Forty-eight.

The Fairest and Most Impartial Plan of Presentation yet Offered to the Public.

A PRIZE WITH EVERY TICKET.

PROSPECTUS.

A number of the leading Bankers and Merchants of New York, in consideration of the great success which has attended many of the Charitable Presentation Entertainments of the day, have formed themselves into a company, with the view of inaugurating an enterprise which, while it shall return them a fair profit, shall offer greater advantages to ticket purchasers than any yet presented; and which being conducted upon a perfectly legitimate and business basis, shall be free from those objectionable features which have characterized many of these enterprises.

To this end they have consigned the sale of tickets and the rendering of the same to Clark, Webster & Co., Bankers and Managers, No. 62 Broadway, New York, who will keep the receipts in their custody until the day of the Grand Presentation Entertainment, when they will be handed over to a Committee selected by the audience to make an impartial distribution of Presents.

A reference to the number of presents and the general plan of distribution, given below, will convince even the most skeptical of the great advantages which will accrue to all who participate in the enterprise; and the Commercial and Financial standing of the Company, and the Managers and Bankers thereof, will, they hope, prove a sufficient guaranty of the fairness and impartiality with which everything in connection with it will be conducted, and that the interests of ticket holders will be most strictly watched over and guarded. In fact, it is the desire of the Managers to conduct every transaction for the mutual benefit of whoever shall purchase a ticket, and scrupulously to avoid any and everything which could in the slightest degree diminish the profits which are likely to accrue to all who invest.

In pursuance thereof, I, SAMUEL B. CLULEY, Sheriff of the county of Allegheny, do therefore make known, and give this public notice to the electors of said county of Allegheny, that a GENERAL ELECTION will be held in said county, on the SECOND TUESDAY, 8th DAY OF OCTOBER NEXT, at the several Election Districts therein, and

WHEREAS, By the Act of Congress of the United States, entitled "An Act to Amend the several Acts heretofore passed to provide for the Enrolling and Calling Out the National Forces, and for other Purposes," and approved March 3d, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five. All persons who have deserted the Military or Naval Service of the United States, and who have not been discharged or relieved from the penalty on disability therein provided, are deemed and taken to have voluntarily relinquished and forfeited their rights to citizenship and their rights to become citizens, and are deprived of exercising any rights of citizens thereof, and

WHEREAS, Persons not citizens of the United States, are not under the Constitution and laws of Pennsylvania qualified electors of this Commonwealth.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by authority of the same, That in all elections hereafter to be held in this Commonwealth, it shall be unlawful for the Judge or Inspectors of any such election to receive any ballot or ballots from any person or persons embraced in the provisions and subject to the disability imposed by said Act of Congress, approved March 3, 1865, and it shall be unlawful for any such person to offer to vote any ballot or ballots.

SEC. 2. That if any such Judge or Inspectors of election, or any one of them shall receive or consent to receive any such unlawful ballot or ballots from any such disqualified person, he or they so offending shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof in any Court of Quarter Sessions of this Commonwealth, he shall for each offence be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars and to undergo an imprisonment in the jail of the proper county for not less than sixty days.

SEC. 3. That if any person deprived of citizenship and disqualified as aforesaid shall at any election hereafter to be held in this Commonwealth, vote or tender to the officers thereof and offer to vote, a ballot or ballots, any person so offending shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof in any Court of Quarter Sessions of this Commonwealth, shall for each offence be punished in like manner as is provided in the preceding section of this Act, in the case of officers of election receiving such unlawful ballot or ballots.

SEC. 4. That if any person shall hereafter persuade or advise any person or persons deprived of citizenship, and disqualified as aforesaid to offer any ballot or ballots to the officers of any election hereafter to be held in this Commonwealth, such person so offending shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof in any Court of Quarter Sessions of this Commonwealth, shall be punished in like manner as is provided in the second section of this Act, in the case of officers of such election receiving such unlawful ballot or ballots.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by authority of the same, That the qualified voters of the several counties of this Commonwealth at all general, township, borough and special elections, are hereby hereafter authorized and required to vote, by tickets printed or written, or partly printed and partly written, severally classified as follows: One ticket shall embrace the names of all judges of courts voted for, and to be labelled, outside, "judiciary;" one ticket shall embrace the names of all state officers voted for, and be labelled "state;" one ticket shall embrace the names of all county officers voted for, including office of senator, member and members of Assembly, if voted for, and members of Congress, if voted for, and be labelled "county;" one ticket shall embrace the names of all township officers voted for, and be labelled "township;" one ticket shall embrace the names of all borough officers voted for, and be labelled "borough," and each class shall be deposited in separate ballot boxes.

And as directed by said 13th section of the Act of July, 1839, I hereby give notice, that every person (excepting Justices of the Peace) who shall hold any office or appointment of profit or trust, under the Government of the United States, or of this State, or of any city, or incorporated district, whether a commissioned officer or otherwise a subordinate officer or agent, who is or shall be employed under the legislative, executive or judiciary department of this State, or of the United States, or of any city or incorporated district, and also that every member of Congress, and of the State Legislature, and of the select or common council of any city, or commissioners of any incorporated district, is by law incapable of holding or exercising at the same time, the office or appointment of Judge, Inspector or Clerk, of any election of this Commonwealth, and that no Inspector, Judge or other officer of any such election shall be eligible to any office to be then voted for.

And further, that by the 4th section of the Act of April 16th, 1840, it is provided, that the aforesaid 13th section of the Act of July 2d, 1839, shall not be so construed as to prevent any militia officer or borough officer from serving as judge, inspector or clerk, at any general or special election in this Commonwealth.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC!
A FEW AVARICIOUS AND UNPRINCIPLED FLOUR DEALERS in and around Pittsburgh, are now purchasing second-hand sacks, with our brand upon them, filling them with an inferior quality and selling it as our Flour. Finding it difficult to procure the quantity of second-hand sacks, they are trying to get the sack maker here to make and print a lot for them.
To prevent this fraud, we are now pasting our sacks, and sealing them with a printed label, with name of firm and date of manufacture.
As we keep a register of the flour made each day, and the kind of wheat ground, we are at all times enabled to know the quality of Flour made.
LOOK OUT FOR SHORT WEIGHTS!
Some of the dealers who are filling the sacks, are putting up short weights, in some cases equal to twenty pounds per barrel, making fully one dollar per barrel loss to the consumer.
A REWARD OF $50.00
Will be paid for information that will lead to the detection and conviction of any person engaged in this fraudulent business.

Surety of the Peace—Magistrates Exceeding Their Powers.

In the Court of Quarter Sessions, on Saturday, Judge Stowe on the bench, two and a half hours were spent in hearing a surety case, returned by Justice Mitchell, of Lawrenceville, in which Michael Geary was defendant and Ann McLaughlin prosecutrix. The case was disposed of by the parties being held in recognizance and the Court costs divided between them. The magistrate in his return set out the items for fees to the amount of fifty-three dollars and seventy-five cents, indicating that he must have entered into an elaborate hearing of the case, for the purpose (taking a charitable view,) of enabling him to decide whether it was a proper one for the consideration of the Court. He erred in his judgment and proceedings, in the opinion of the Court, and by way of breaking up a practice productive of much harm, the magistrate's costs were ordered not to be paid. Judge Stowe took occasion to say that in the consideration of surety of the peace cases, magistrates generally went outside of their legitimate duties. They were simply required, upon oath being made before them that threats had been uttered, the execution of which the deponent apprehended, to bind over the party complained of for his appearance at Court. The magistrate was to determine as to the character of the case by the oath of the complainant, further investigation being beyond his prerogative, and in order to impress this course of action upon the "court-and-jury dignitaries," it was announced that hereafter no costs would be allowed to witnesses examined in such cases before magistrates. This will have the effect of relieving the Court to a great extent from annoyance, such as was experienced last week; but the prospect of a wholesome check to the demoralizing influence of the litigation stimulated of late years by magistrates, is not flattering. When fees were allowed the Aldermen in disorderly conduct and vagrancy cases, the draft upon the county treasury was very large, and so patent did the abuse become, so flagrant the imposition, that, in making other reforms, Henry Lambert, Esq., County Controller, and those concerned with him in the good work succeeded in stopping the leak in the treasury—not by interference with the jurisdiction of the magistrates, but by lopping off the perquisites. This proved to be a most effectual remedy, the "disorderly conduct" abuse having entirely ceased with respect to city magistrates. Surety of the peace cases seem, however, to have taken the place of the "disorderly" business, since such is the subject of nine-tenths of the informations taken by magistrates, seven-eighths of which go no further than their offices. This may be judged an extravagant statement, taking into consideration the large number of surety cases returned to the present term of Court. But it is not. The fifty, sixty or a hundred now entered on the calendar, are but a drop in the bucket, compared with the number entertained by the magistrates of the cities and surrounding boroughs. Then what becomes of the remainder? Many are doubtless dismissed and many are improperly settled. Surety of the peace cases, in a word, form the major portion of the business transacted by some of our magistrates. They live, prosper and grow rich by speculation in the squabbles of the poorer and humbler classes of society, and hence it is that they encourage such species of litigation. The action of the Court will, we are convinced, go but a little way towards checking the evil. It may result in even fewer of the cases of surety being returned, and the newspapers may be relieved from announcing "further hearings" in such: but this will be the extent.

From the Leafy Grove.

The admirable account of the Castleman's Run Camp Meeting, published in the GAZETTE of the 4th instant, closed with the experience meeting of Monday morning. At 10½ o'clock a most earnest and powerful sermon was preached by Rev. M. B. Pugh, of California, Washington county, Pennsylvania, on the "Value and Loss of the Soul." A deep impression was made upon the large audience present. At 5½ o'clock Rev. W. Darby, of Shousetown, Pa., preached a sermon on, "Divine Teaching and Guidance." It was a nail driven in a sure place. In the evening Rev. W. B. Watkins, of Washington, Pa., occupied the stand. His theme was, "the Great Salvation and the Danger of Neglecting it." He preached with great earnestness and his discourse produced a profound impression. At the close of it a number of penitents presented themselves at the altar of prayer. The exercises of the evening closed between ten and eleven o'clock.

Tuesday morning at six o'clock praise and prayer were heard in all the tents again. At eight another experience meeting. It was largely attended. It was an occasion of most thrilling interest. The power of God was most manifestly present—many witnesses for Jesus. Ten o'clock found a vast audience assembled to hear a discourse from Rev. Mr. Mullenix, pastor of the Fourth Street M. E. Church, Wheeling, on the "Choice of Moses." It was a sermon of rare merits—simple, elegant, touching, thrilling. When he was done the people of God were in a most suitable state of mind to celebrate the Lord's Supper. Thirty-five ministers were present, and the whole number of those that communed was between three and four hundred. Rev. Mr. Wyman, of West Virginia Conference, preached at three o'clock on the "Church as the Light of the World." In the evening Rev. Mr. Ball, pastor of the Zane Street M. E. Church, Wheeling, delivered a discourse on "Winning Souls." God signally answered the effort. The slain of the Lord were many. The prayer meeting that followed was one of great spiritual power. A number of the slain were made alive again.

Wednesday morning, at eight o'clock, found four or five hundred persons assembled for another experience meeting. Any attempt to describe this meeting would be vain. It continued for some two hours and a half with increasing interest and power. The whole encampment seemed to be filled with the presence and glory of God. Penitents came at the close of the meeting to the altar of prayer, and several professed conversion.

At 3 o'clock Rev. W. H. Locke, pastor of the Liberty street M. E. Church, of Pittsburgh, preached a sermon on "Christ the Great Propitiation."

We must not omit to say that at 2 o'clock a Childrens' Meeting was held, conducted by Rev. D. A. Pierce, of Canonsburg, Pa. He and Rev. T. H. Wilkenson, of Mansfield, Pa., and Rev. W. B. Watkins, addressed the children on the importance of early conversion.

When the time for the evening service arrived, from a thousand to fifteen hundred persons were assembled. By a unanimous vote of the whole audience it was decided to hold a meeting next year.

The closing sermon was preached by Rev. J. Connor, of East Springfield, Ohio. His theme was well chosen—"The importance of preparing to meet God." He discussed with much earnestness, and not without visible effect. At the close of the sermon a prayer meeting was held, which continued for more than an hour. The venerable T. M. Hudson then delivered a parting address. He uttered many deeply solemn words. The doxology was sung, the benediction pronounced, and thus closed one of the best meetings ever held on the ground.

Thirty-eight persons united with the church, and about the same number professed conversion. Several of those who joined the church were far advanced in life. One man was in his seventieth year, and a prominent and influential citizen.

The whole number of preachers in attendance during the meeting was between forty and fifty. AMICUS.

The O'Hara Bankrupt Case—Jury Trial Awarded.

Saturday forenoon was the time fixed for the hearing before Judge McCandless, in the United States Court, of the argument on the rule upon Michael O'Hara, Esq., to show cause why he should not be declared a bankrupt, on the petition of Williams & Co., of Duquesne Borough, and also of the application of Mr. O'Hara for a trial by jury, he having denied the allegations in the petition that he had committed acts of bankruptcy. Messrs. Marshall and Fetterman appeared as counsel for O'Hara, and the petitioners were represented by Messrs. A. H. Miller, MacConnell and Kennedy. After brief arguments the Court granted the application for a trial by jury. The rule on Mr. O'Hara to answer for contempt, in refusing to deliver up certain property in his possession, was also to be heard, but by consent it was deferred until Saturday next. Judge McCandless suggested, however, that the charge of contempt would not lie unless Mr. O'Hara had been adjudicated a bankrupt, and it is likely that the proceedings in this respect will be suspended, the case as it now stands depending upon the result of a trial before a jury, which cannot be had before October.

Admitted to the Bar.—On Saturday, on motion of George Shiras, Jr., Thomas H. Baird Patterson and Thomas Bigelow were admitted to practice law in the several Courts of the county. Both these young gentlemen passed highly creditable examinations before the Bar Committee.

☞ Additional Local Matters on First Page.

—Common sense and fashion walk together now-a-days in thick soled shoes. It is not so long ago but that we can easily remember the time, that Dame Fashion insisted on ladies killing themselves with wafer soled shoes—to say nothing of the men. Now, thin soles are vulgar, and the more nearly a boot or shoe approaches the "stoga," without really being coarse and ill made, the more decidedly swellish it is. We get this sensible fashion from England.

—Thirty women, of Montgomery, Alabama, with children numbering ninety-six in the aggregate, publish a card in the papers of that city, in which they declare that they are suffering for the absolute necessaries of life, and can get no work with which to support themselves and their helpless children. They state that they have been receiving assistance from the United States Government and from Dr. Rose, but that these sources have been closed.

—A young man named James Harding, living near Saranac, Michigan, dislocated his jaw while yawning, so that it fell on his neck. A physician was called in who set it in its proper place, but it fell down three times, and finally had to be securely tied up to keep it in position. This is an awful warning to church-goers in warm weather.

—A German engraver in New Haven was in debt to a fellow countryman some sixty dollars for drinks and borrowed money, and shot him as a convenient way of settling the matter. He then killed himself.

—Accounts from all parts of Russia concur in stating that the year 1867 will be noted as a year of plenty. The crops of hemp, wheat, millet and oats are in a prosperous condition. An unusually fine crop of beet root is expected. The liberated serfs of Russia are experiencing the difficulty of farming without capital. The rent of one year is often paid out of the next year's crop.

—An audacious robbery was committed at the Paris Exhibition, in the Swedish section, a quantity of pearls, valued at from $5000 to $6000, having been stolen in the open day. For some days previously the inspectors had warned the owner that his glass case was not properly secured, but he had not, however, paid any attention to the notice.

Messrs. Burke & Barnes, Pittsburgh, Pa.

GENTLEMEN—We ship you, to-day, by railroad, a safe of your make, for a few repairs. The safe went through the disastrous fire that occurred here on the 8th of March last, burning our store and warehouse, and we are glad to inform you that the papers taken out of the safe after the fire were not harmed in the least. We did not suppose any safe, especially so small a size, could possibly stand such a fire, and when we discovered the papers all safe and sound, we were agreeably disappointed. We will give you an order for a large size safe when we get into our new store. Truly yours,

—The rumors of a defalcation in the Treasury Department by one of the clerks in the Currency Bureau are confirmed. The defaulting clerk had to collect from the national banks the charges for payment of examiners' fees. The defalcation, however, is reported to be for a sum comparatively trifling, and it does not touch any Treasury fund or the circulating notes of national banks. Neither the banks nor the examiners, to whom the money should have been paid, will lose anything, as the deficiency will probably be made good by the friends of the party in default, or if not, the Comptroller himself is responsible for any loss.

—The passage of a National Bankrupt law, it is stated, has had a somewhat different effect upon the fortunes of merchants and traders who had failed than was expected. It was supposed that as there was known to be great numbers of people who could not go into business because of their unliquidated indebtedness, that as a consequence there would be a rush of bankrupts to take advantage of the new law. A New York paper says this has not yet been the case, though, undoubtedly, when the fall terms of the courts commence there will be a much larger number of bankrupts put through the legal mill than was the case this summer. Instead of taking advantage of the law to free themselves from their obligations by being declared bankrupt, the delinquent and unfortunate traders are "settling" with their creditors. For one person who makes application to the courts, there are twenty who privately come to an understanding with their creditors. This has been done to so great an extent that throughout the country thousands of old merchants will re-enter business this fall and winter. The law allows practically of three modes of settlement: the voluntary and involuntary bankruptcies of insolvent debtors, or a compromise without legal proceedings, and this is what is now going on all over the country. The effect cannot but be good. Hundreds of energetic men will again find their way into business, and thousands of families will be relieved from the burden of old debts. The law so far seems to have worked well.

—The Daily Bulletin of Philadelphia, in noticing the recent funding and liquidating operations of the Treasury Department, says:

"It might be said that the finances of our Government would be best managed by the Secretary of the Treasury having unlimited powers, not subject to check by act of Congress if a Secretary could be found with wisdom and experience as boundless as his authority. But as perfectly wise and just men are not met with, we see, in fact, both rulers and financial officers with powers hedged in by numerous legal restrictions. Mr. McCulloch did not indicate the form and character of the obligations to be issued for the United States loans, but was obliged to accept them as they were; and in the management of our finances his operations are under the laws and restrictions of Congress, and subject to its approval at every session. With these facts in mind, we think that his general course in funding the short obligations, and adjusting his disbursements to the requirements of business, have lately been very satisfactory. In August a considerable amount of compound interest notes fell due, and he has balanced the effect of their withdrawal to a great extent by the heavy disbursements from the Treasury, instead of issuing debt certificates, which would have been legal tenders for the purpose of bank reserves, and no contraction would have made. The result of the operation has certainly been successful in keeping an easy money market, as loans are made at lower rates today than a week ago, notwithstanding the increased demand for currency at the west. In October another issue of compound interest notes falls due, and the question arises whether the debt certificates authorized by Congress will be issued to replace them. It is probable that they will be issued, as the demand for money will be large at that time for business purposes, and the Secretary will take every means to avoid such a contraction as will bring stringency to the money market, with its attendant evils; moreover, the balance in the Treasury at that time will probably not be so large that further heavy disbursements such as have been made in August will be convenient. The general principles upon which the finances have been managed are certainly commendable. These principles are mainly these: 1. To fund short obligations in long bonds, with interest payable in gold. 2. A contraction of legal tender notes as rapidly as the business interests of the country will allow. 3. In the meantime to keep such business of gold and currency on hand, and take such other precautions as will give the Secretary control of his affairs, and prevent his embarrassment by any sudden movement at home or abroad. Mr. McCulloch is entitled to commendation for yielding his personal opinions in some cases to the judgment of Congress and to the evident wants of the country. He is an avowed contractionist, but has not always used the privilege granted him of withdrawing four millions a month of legal tenders. He has not done that which many other public officers invested with as great powers would have done; formed a plan of action in his own mind, and carried out that plan inflexibly, against the remonstrances of both friends and opponents, to the injury of the country and the ruin of the public credit."

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
SATURDAY, September 7, 1867.

The general markets have been only moderately active during the past week, the operations in most of the leading commodities having been mainly of an unimportant character, as the demand is restricted mainly to supplying immediate wants. There is, however, a firmer feeling than during the early part of the week, and as the impression seems to prevail that prices have touched bottom for the present, especially for Flour and Grain, many are impressed with the belief that an advance is near at hand, and already some operators are operating for a rise.

GRAIN—Wheat is scarce and in demand at full prices; sale of 2 cars prime Red at $2,25. Oats firm and in limited supply with an advancing tendency; we now quote at 53@54c on track, and 58@60c in store. Corn is scarce and wanted, and prime yellow may be fairly quoted at $1,12@1,14. Rye also, is in good demand, and may be quoted firm at $1,15, to arrive, and $1,20 on spot. Prime Spring Barley is in demand at $1,15.

FLOUR—There is no material improvement to note in the demand, but the market is steady and prices are well sustained. We continue to quote at $10@10,50 for Spring Wheat; $10,75@11,25 for Winter Wheat; and $13@14 for fancy brands. Rye Flour is quiet and unchanged at $7,75@8.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is firm and higher; we now quote at 14c for Shoulders; 16c for Ribbed and 17c for Clear Sides, and 21½c@22c for Sugar Cured Hams. Lard is firm but dull, at 13½c, in tierces and 13¾@14c in kegs. Mess Pork is quiet and unchanged at $24@24.50 per barrel.

SEEDS—Sale of 150 bushels Timothy Seed to the trade at $2,25—in small lots holders are asking $2,75. Flaxseed will command $2,40, and but little offering. No movement in Clover Seed.

EGGS—Prime fresh packed Eggs continue scarce and in good demand, and may be fairly quoted at 18@20c.

BUTTER—Prime fresh Butter is in fair demand but unchanged—sale of 1200 lbs solid packed at 26. Common packed does not appear to be wanted at any price.

GREEN APPLES—Continue very dull but unchanged, ranging from $2@3 per bbl, as to quality.

PEACHES—Sold to-day at from $2,00@3,00 per box—the great bulk of the sales were at from $2,25@2,75.

SWEET POTATOES—Sales of Marietta at $4,50@5 per bbl, and Jerseys at $6.

HAY—Is dull but unchanged—sales from country wagons at $14 to $19 per ton, according to quality.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
SATURDAY, September 7, 1868.

CRUDE—The market was again very much excited to-day, and while the transactions, in the aggregate, were hardly up to those of Friday, there was apparently a firmer feeling, and buyers took hold with less hesitation. So far as we could learn, there were no sales of spot oil, and, in the absence of which, we quote at 13¼@13½c. As will be seen by reference to the sales, "first water" sold at 12¾c; all the year 1867, buyer's option, at 13¾c; same delivery, seller's option, at 12@12½c—there was a sale for March and April, 1868, on private terms—somewhere about 13¾ or 14c. The reported sales were as follows:

2000 bbls,	all the year, buyer	13½c
3000 "	until Dec. 1st—difference in cash	13c
2000 "	November, seller	13½c
1000 "	all year, seller	12¾c
1000 "	until December—seller	12¾c
2500 "	until January 1st—seller	12¾c
600 "	first water	12¾c
1000 "	"	12¾c
2000 "	March and April, 1868	p. t.
50 "	Smith's Ferry—spot	12½c

REFINED—There is no abatement in the excitement in the market for bonded oil, which is in consequence of the continued favorable advices from Europe, and prices for the late months, if anything, are a shade better. Antwerp, it was rumored, had advanced to 60 francs, which, if correct, is the highest point it has touched in that market this season, and, we presume, that Liverpool will respond to Antwerp, though, the advance is not likely to be so great. It has been remarked that this market has not advanced with Antwerp, but this is easily explained. Previous to the present excitement, our markets were relatively above those of Antwerp and Liverpool, and the advance there was legitimate and natural in order to get on a proper basis with the market in this country. One of two things was inevitable—an advance there or a decline here. The reported sales to-day were as follows:

500 bbls	October—buyer	34½c
1500 "	"	34c
1500 "	500 each Oct., Nov. and Dec.	34c
1000 "	September—buyer	33c
500 "	"	32½c
500 "	"	33c
1000 "	"	33c
1000 "	"	33c
2000 "	September to December	34c
1000 "	October to Decembr	34c
1000 "	November—buyer	34½c
500 "	prime light straw to white	31½c

ARRIVALS—The following comprises the arrivals of oil at this point during the week ending to-day:

RIVER NEWS.

The Louisville and Green River Packet Company has contracted for a new first class boat for that trade, the hull to be constructed by T. S. Nadal & Son, and to have capacity for carrying 300 tons freight, and power to make her as fast as anything in that trade.

A resolution was introduced into the Louisville Chamber of Commerce, Wednesday, declaring that the members of that body withdrawn all patronage and business from insurance companies that have agreed to take risks on freights shipped under the new bill of lading recently adopted by the steamboatmen of that place.

The Nashville Gazette, of Tuesday, says: It was rumored, several days ago, that Alex. R. Hughes, a high-esteemed young man, well-known on the river, had died recently at Galveston, Texas. We are glad to learn that there is no truth in the report.

Captain Henry W. Smith, Superintendent of the Memphis and St. Louis Packet Company, and Captain Ben. Johnson, both distinguished river men of St. Louis, are at present in the city, endeavoring to make arrangements with the Nashville and Northwestern Railroad, and to perfect reliable connections at the other end of the road. We wish them success.

At Evansville, Thursday, the Mayor and City Council, with the Engineer of the Indianapolis Works, Mr. Cunningham, made a coast survey. The chief object was to ascertain the probability of the cut-off near the mouth of Green river to Henderson, of which there is not the slightest possibility, and the practicability of opening the Big Bayou above and opposite to the mouth of Green river, in order to wash away the bar in front of the city, which is not generally deemed feasible. A mud dam above the wreck of the Missouri, and a little dredging, will do the work.

At Cairo, Thursday, while launching the steamer Robt. E. Lee from the Mound City Marine Works, two cradles under her bow stopped, while the remainder went on into the river, leaving the boat in a bad position. She is badly twisted. The bow is still some distance out of the water. Every effort was being made to get her off.

LOUISVILLE, September 5.—The river is falling quite rapidly. It has fallen twelve inches during the past twenty-four hours. There are now less than three feet six inches in the canal by the mark, and scant four feet on Portland bar. Reports from the Lower Ohio say there is scant four feet over the bars, and the river at a stand. The Leonora No. 2 passed up early this morning. River business is improving.

ST. LOUIS, September 5.—Navigation is daily becoming worse. The Lady Pike has been sent to the Leclaire ways, after scraping hard above La Crosse. The Minnesota is down to less than three feet, and the Mohler has been withdrawn. There are four and a half hence to Keokuk, and steadily going down. There are seven and a half feet to Cairo. The Luella and Guidon arrived from the mountains yesterday. The latter's passenger receipts for the round trip amount to over $20,000. The following mountain boats are yet to arrive: Gallatin, Richmond, Tom Stevens, Imperial, Zephyr, Centralia, Last Chance, Miner, Mountaineer, Only Chance, Huntsville, Deer, Lodge, St. Johns, Mary McDonald. Captains Malin and Broisaki last night opened the Laclede, a new and elegant hotel.

The Memphis and Louisville Railroad is breaking into the river business of the Ohio, as they are carrying cotton through to Louisville at $1 per bale.

Not long since we made mention of the new hydraulic propeller so successfully tried by the British Admiralty the last few months at London. It is now stated that a British naval officer left Boston, on Wednesday, in the Java, who proposes to return to New York early in 1868, in command of a steamer without paddles, screw or oar. In other words, he intends to cross the Atlantic in a steamship fitted with hydraulic propellers, using petroleum as fuel.

The Cincinnati Enquirer, of Friday, says: Mr. George L. Johnston received a dispatch yesterday evening from New Orleans conveying the sad news of the death of his brother, Jas. W. Johnson, of yellow fever, which occurred in that city yesterday morning. The deceased was formerly a steamboat clerk on the Ohio River, and was especially well known in the Cincinnati and Madison trade, in which he ran for a considerable time. He was a young man of fine promise, and his death will be deeply regretted by all who knew him.

Mr. Thomas S. Royse, agent of the Dean Line Packet Company, was yesterday married to Miss Schaller, a daughter of one of our well known merchants. The happy pair left last night on a tour through the East.
